STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The right to cancel this enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid, is available through attendance at the first class session (August 8, 2016), or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Enrollment is defined as the date on which the student is enrolled in a scheduled class. The decision to cancel must be delivered by mail, email, or fax. The student will then be refunded 100% of the amount paid for institutional charges, less the enrollment deposit and partial enrollment fees ($250.00).

You may cancel this enrollment agreement and receive a refund by providing a written notice to the Dean of Administrative Services of The Young Americans College of the Performing Arts, 1132 Olympic Drive, Corona, CA 92881.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

If the student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. If the student is eligible for a loan guaranteed by the federal or state government and the student defaults on the loan, both of the following may occur:

1. The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.
2. The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government assistance until the loan is repaid.

Students who withdraw entirely from a program will not be liable for the tuition applicable to any course for which they have not yet enrolled. Monies paid above the tuition for the courses they have attempted will be refunded within 30 days of withdrawal.
